

MODEL EXAMINATION 2011-12

Max. Score: 60

HSE II

HOME SCIENCE

1. Find the odd one out. Give reason.
blind, deaf, gifted, delinquent 1 score
2. Suppose your brother's striped shirt got punctured with a hole while gardening. What mending process would you suggest to get it repaired? 1 score
3. Difference between natural immunity and acquired immunity. 2 score
4. Draw any one traditional style of flower arrangement. 2 score
5. Suggest four ways in which you can apply your knowledge of home science in everyday life. 2 score
6. Write the causative organisms of the following diseases.
  - a. Tuberculosis _____
  - b. Pertussis _____
  - c. Tetanus _____
  - d. Polio _____ 2 score
7. Illustrate two ways of creating balance in a dress. 3 score
8. Sita is not sure whether her son is suffering from measles or mumps. Help her to identify three symptoms of each. 3 score
9. Your mother needs to buy curtains for her drawing room. Illustrate the curtain style you should select. Why? 3 score
10. Explain any two common finishes applied on your cotton dresses. 4 score
11. Sohan is a dumb and deaf child. In what ways can the parents and teachers help to meet his various needs? 4 score
12. Enumerate any four problems faced by consumers. What are the responsibilities of consumers? 4 score
13. Match the following

A	B
Hand Printing	Discharge Printing
Indirect Printing	Roller Printing
Resist Printing	Block Printing
Direct Printing	Screen Printing

14. Enumerate the contrasting colour schemes. 2 score
15. Pre-school education helps in the overall development of young children – Justify. 4 score
16. What four points should be kept in mind while planning meals for a diabetic patient? Plan a day's menu for a diabetic patient. 3 score
17. Population explosion is a serious problem faced by our country. Do you agree with this? Prepare a poster to educate the rural people about the problems of population explosion and its prevention. 5 score
18. Discuss the principles of meal planning. 5 score
19. Your friend accidentally upturned a bottle of ink and your shirt got stained. How do you remove the stain? What would you have done had it been a ball point ink stain? 3 score
20. IQ level of different groups of Mental Retardation is given below. Identify the respective group.

IQ level	Group Name
70 – 90 50-70 39-45 20-34

2 score