

M.A. (LABOUR AND DEVELOPMENT)Term-End Examination*December, 2009

00349

MLD-004 (S) : LABOUR AND DEVELOPMENT IN INDIATime : 3 hoursMaximum Marks : 100Weightage : 70%*

Note : Part I - Answer any two essays out of 4 given below.Part II - Answer any five short answer questions out of 8 given below.

PART - I

1. What are the highlights of the NCEUS report on social security (2006) ? 20
2. List the important commissions and committees set up by the Government of India (from 1925 to 2009) along with the year in which they submitted their final report. 20
3. Surveys can be of census type or sample type. Explain the two types of surveying and give examples for each with reference to the data on Labour and Employment in India. 20
4. List and discuss briefly the two main terms of reference given to the SNCL (2002). 20

PART - II

5. What are 'growth poles' ? What are its advantages ? 12
6. Name the two important sources of data on employment in India and briefly describe the organisations that provide these data. 12
7. Define and explain the terms Usual status, Current daily status, Current weekly status used by the NSS. 12
8. How is unemployment rate defined ? Give the equation and explain. 12
9. What is John Henry Whitley known for ? Write a brief biography with the importance of his work. 12
10. What is work participation rate (WPR) ? What was the WPR for male and female workers in India in 2004 - 05 ? 12
11. In British India, what was a notable difference between plantations and Jute mills on the one hand and other industries on the other ? 12
12. Why is women's work invisible according to the Shram Shakti Report ? Give some examples and describe. 12

- o O o -