BACHELOR OF ENGINEERING EXAMINATION, 2019
(1st year, 1st Semester)
HUMANITIES & SOCIOLOGY

Time-3hrs  Full marks -100

ANSWER ALL THE SIX QUESTIONS FROM BOTH SECTION-A AND SECTION-B

Section-A

1) How is the study of science and technology a social activity? (CO1) 15

2) Elaborate on the relationship between science and state as discussed by Ashish Nandy. (CO2) 15

3) Discuss in detail any two technological and scientific innovations during Industrial revolution. What are the social implications of these innovations? (CO3) 15

4) How did Britain emerge as the center for Industrial revolution? (CO4) 15

5) Discuss how Judy Wajcman presents a feminist critique of science and technology. (CO5) 15

Section-B

6) Write short notes on any five from the following (CO6) 5x5=25

a. Features of Post Industrial Society
b. Informational capitalism
c. Role of time and space in network society.
d. Tattoos as autobiographical devices
e. Network society
f. Body and contemporary identity
g. Service society